

use less · waste less · pay less · live smarter

stringybark

Knox City Council

Principal sponsor

Knox's own national festival celebrating sustainability in the suburbs

Sat 15 & Sun 16 October 2011

Rowville Community Centre Reserve

FULHAM ROAD, ROWVILLE (MELWAY 81 K1) 10AM-5PM
CHILDREN/CONCESSION $2, ADULT $3, FAMILY $7

Low impact children's fairground & interactive playspace | Free face painting | Free fun children's workshops | Roving performers

RDNH - Neighbourhood Stage
Fair Trade & locally made market

You'll also discover fabulous organic food, produce, plants | Wild Oak Event Kitchen & Greenleaf Forum

Native animal display & show

Interactive permaculture garden, FREE tomato plants and Aussie natives

Learn how to reduce your impact on the environment through small steps that won't cost the earth

5 stages of live music and entertainment

Pedal powered BUSK stage | Don't miss The Amazing Drumming Monkeys

Human Powered Vehicle track

Catch the free festival bus from FTG station, Knox Civic Centre or Wellington Village. Stringybark supports access parking, toilets & recharge station

This is a plastic bag free event - please bring your own bags

See Knox Leader on 11 October for a full program or go to facebook.com/knoxCouncil twitter #stringybark

This flyer is collectively printed from recycled fibre (100% post-consumer waste). All inks are vegetable based and the whole process is solvent and chlorine free. Rainwater is used for print equipment cleaning and energy is from a green supplier. All waste is either reused or recycled.